Dear Friend of Mercy Health Foundation,

Planning is underway for the 2018 Chaplains Auction at Mercy Hospital Jefferson. The Auction benefits the Chaplains' Fund, which is managed by the hospital's Managed Care Department and provides assistance to patients who cannot afford medical needs such as prescription medications, minor medical equipment and transportation. This year the auction is held on November 28-29, 2018, in the conference center at Mercy Hospital Jefferson.

Fortunately, we are given the chance to understand the impact of the funds we raise through this event.

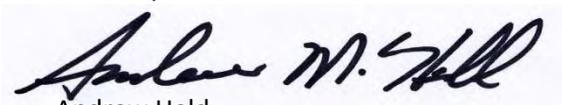

"A patient's brother had passed away while the patient was still at Mercy Jefferson. The patient was estranged from his family for over 20 years, but he still felt the strong need to get to the funeral. Although the patient and his brother had not spoken in years, they were still close in the sense that they had helped each other through horrible childhood experiences. The Chaplain's Fund provided transportation for the patient to go to the funeral, make amends with his family, and rekindle family and friend relationships. The co-workers that provided care for this patient were instrumental in safely transporting the patient to the funeral. This spiritual and emotional healing of the patient, enabled by the co-workers and Chaplains' Fund, I believe, expedited the physical healing of the patient."

Please know that your donated item will ensure someone in need receives the assistance they deserve. I have enclosed an event flyer and an auction item donation form. Donations can be, but are not limited to, themed gift baskets, sporting event tickets, and gift cards. For your convenience a Foundation co-worker will be happy to pick up donated items on or before Monday, November 18, 2018. If you have questions, please contact Mercy Health Foundation by calling 636-933-1603 or by email at andrew.held@mercy.net.

Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Sincerely,

Andrew Held
