

Guide to State Services

Additional resources for medical and financial assistance.

Arkansas

- Arkansas Medicaid Website
<https://medicaid.mmis.arkansas.gov/> or 1.800.457.4454
This site provides info about Arkansas Medicaid and how to apply. You can either apply online or print out an application and turn it in at your local office. This site also directs you to local office locations.
- Arkansas Department of Human Services
humanservices.arkansas.gov or 1.501.682.1001
This site provides information about emergency shelter and food, child care assistance and early education, adult disability programs, nursing home, and assisted living information.
- Arkansas Department of Health healthy.arkansas.gov or 1.800.275.1131
This site has information about the WIC program, childhood vaccinations and check-ups, women's health check-ups, and birth and death records.
- Arkansas Community Action Agency
acaaa.org
This website has additional housing resources, utility assistance, and Head Start information for early childhood education. Once on the site, if you navigate to the resources link, it will allow you to find your county with the phone numbers for your local office.

Illinois

- Illinois Medicaid Website
dhs.state.il.us or 1.800.843.6154
This website allows you to apply online for Illinois Medicaid, child care assistance, food stamps, and rehabilitation services. You can also submit a change of address form or update income/asset information for previously approved Medicaid applications.
- Illinois Department of Public Health
dph.illinois.gov
This website can assist with wellness prevention programs, immunizations, birth and death records, WIC, newborn screenings, and women's health services. Once on the website, if you click on the Contact Us tab, it will give you a list of phone numbers for the specific department that will be able to assist you.
- Illinois Association of Community Action Agencies
iacaanet.org or 1.217.789.0125
This site provides information on housing and energy assistance and the early education program, Head Start.

Kansas

- Kansas Medicaid Website
kancare.ks.gov or 1.866.305.5147
This website allows you to apply for Kansas Medicaid online. Or you may call the number above for help with your application. You can also find answers to some frequently asked questions.
- Kansas Department of Health and Environment
kdheks.gov or 1.785.296.1500
This website provides information about WIC, child care, childhood immunizations, newborn screenings, check-ups, and birth, death, marriage, and divorce records.
- Kansas Association of Community Action Programs
kacap.org or 1.785.234.0878
This site can help provide information about housing, emergency assistance, transportation, and the Head Start early education program.

Missouri

- Missouri Medicaid Website
mydss.mo.gov or 1.855.373.4636
On this website, you can apply online for Medicaid for Families and Children as well as Medicaid for Pregnancy. There is also information regarding food stamps, child care, and child support information. If you would like to apply for Medicaid Disability benefits, you will have to go into the local FSD office in your area and they will assist you.
- Missouri Department of Health & Senior Services health.mo.gov or 1.573.751.6400
Here you will find information about the WIC program, how to apply, and where to find the closest office for assistance. These offices can also assist with childhood immunizations and check-ups. It also includes information on Senior Services such as Nursing Home resources, the need for Home Based services, and Adult Day Care.
- Missouri Association for Community Action
communityaction.org or 1.573.634.2969
This site will allow you to choose the county you live in and find local community action agencies that may be able to assist with housing resources and energy assistance, as well as WIC and the early education program, Head Start.

Oklahoma

- Oklahoma Medicaid Website
okhca.org or 1.800.987.7767
This site will allow you to apply online for Medicaid as well as give you information on Indian Health Services.
- Oklahoma Association of Community Action Agencies
okacaa.org or 1.405.949.1495
This site provides information on housing and energy assistance as well as the Head Start early childhood education program. You can also locate your local office with phone and address information.