Mercy Fort Smith Community Benefit Report

Foster Care Awareness Evening- Paris, AR

Mercy Fort Smith has been asked by Arkansas Governor Asa Hutchinson to take a leadership role in spreading awareness and helping to find a solution to the foster care crisis in the state of Arkansas. On Thursday, November 2, 2017, Mercy Paris and the Paris Community Health Council hosted an evening dedicated to raising awareness of the foster care situation in Logan County. Local residents, not-for-profit organizations and elected officials were provided information and statistics on children in foster care. In Arkansas at the end of fiscal year 2017, there were 5,170 children in the foster care system with 96 of the children from Logan County.

Speakers for the evening included; Cheri Garcez, executive director, CASA of the Tri-Peaks; Laquita Wellborn, a foster care parent of four children; Carol Geels, supervisor department of human services; and Phyllis Bell, senior advisor for Governor Asa Hutchinson's office.

Vendors at the event included The CALL, CASA, Optimist International (a world-wide volunteer organization) and Project Zero with the Arkansas Heart Gallery. Vendors provided information on ways to volunteer to help support foster children.

Mercy Paris and the Paris Community Health Council will continue to support the ongoing efforts in spreading awareness of the foster care situation in Logan County and throughout Arkansas.
